Dear Miss Jarrett:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of 14 December 1960 enclosing a clipping from the Indianapolis Star which makes reference to the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF).

This Agency has no information on this Fund other than organizationally it is responsible to the Secretariat of the United Nations. If you are interested in the specific functions of the Fund, it is recommended that you write to the Secretary General of the United Nations, New York, New York.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Dulles-

The clipping enclosed was taken from the Indianapolis Star. I had ordered Christmas cards from the UNICEF before this article was printed. I wrote that I requested the order be cancelled and asked for a refund.. I gave no reason.

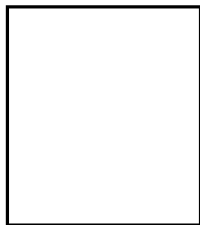

When the parcel arrived I refused to accept it. So far I have not received the refund.

Several people in this town of 12,000 read the article. I am president of a local club that is a member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs and also hold a state office. I like to keep informed.

Is this organization what the writer of the article states it is?

Yours very truly

Ethel Eloise Jarrett

Wake Up to the Editor of The Star:

Before we let our generosity and sympathy get the better of our common sense, let us shake our heads and wake up to the type of organization back of the UNICEF collections and greeting cards.

. . . Space here does not permit a full explanation, but if you will send to the DAR Defense Committee, 1776 D Street, N.W., Washington 6, D.C., they will send you a pamphlet, "UNICEF — Cradle of Socialism."

Also American Opinion, a magazine published by a group of dedicated patriots in Belmont, Mass., has an article in its November issue which reveals the organization back of this movement.
